ACTIVITY 5

Ayşe is talking about her own and her family members' favourite TV programmes. Read the text and correct the sentences.

Hello! I'm Ayşe. My father is a police officer and my mother is a teacher. My brother, Ali is a secondary school student. He is in the sixth grade. I study in the second grade. We enjoy watching TV together when there is a nice film. But everybody in my family likes different kinds of programmes. My dad prefers watching news and reality shows. He doesn't watch TV for long hours. He cannot come home for one day or two days because he works really hard. So, he watches TV in his free time.

My brother Ali watches everything. On holiday, he is a real couch potato. He never gives us the remote control. He sits and watches all the football matches and discussion programmes about sports. He sometimes prefers watching serials but he hates documentaries. My mother works hard too. She only has time to watch TV at night. She generally watches quiz shows and she can easily answer nearly all the questions. My mother says the signs about TV programmes are really important. She never lets me and my brother watch the programmes that are not suitable for our ages. My favourite programmes are sitcoms and talk shows. Because I think they are amusing. But, I rarely watch TV because I prefer reading books to watching TV most of the time.

1- Ayşe's father watches TV when he gets home every evening.

2- They don't watch TV together.

---

3- Ayşe's brother sometimes watches documentaries.
