The Effects of Social Media on Teenagers

Social media affects teenagers in both good and bad ways. On the positive side, it helps teens make friends, share their thoughts, and learn new things. They can talk to other people from different places and find groups that share their interests. However, social media can also make teens feel bad about themselves because they might compare their lives to others' perfect posts. Spending too much time on social media can also make it harder to sleep, focus on schoolwork, or spend time with friends in person. It's important for teens to use social media in a healthy way.

Write two negative effects of social media on teenagers according to the passage.

- a. Social media can make teens feel bad about themselves because they might compare their lives to others' perfect posts.
- b. Spending too much time on social media can also make it harder to sleep, focus on schoolwork, or spend time with friends in person.
